

Professor Carolyn S. Melby, RN, Ph.D, ANP, CCH

Dr. Carolyn Melby is an international nurse consultant who has developed, consulted and administered nursing programs in advanced practice nursing and health policy in the US, Asia and the Middle East. Her research has focused on the experiences of professors and students in nursing classes that teach across culture and language. At present she has founded and is president of an NGO (The Carl and Enga Melby Charitable Foundation) that provides educational support to nursing programs with a focus on professionalizing nursing across the world. Dr. Melby consults with nursing programs internationally and is a co-sponsor of the First International Nursing Conference in the Kurdistan Region of Iraq.
